 Siggiewi, Central

Located in a peaceful alley within the sought-after UCA area, this traditional townhouse presents a fantastic opportunity to create a unique family residence or boutique guesthouse. Although currently unconverted, the property offers generous spaces and great potential throughout.

The ground floor is centred around a welcoming living area, complemented by several large rooms, a kitchen, and a bathroom. It also opens onto a private yard with a traditional well, leading to an impressive 250sqm garden filled with mature trees, a rare feature that provides exceptional outdoor space and privacy.

Upstairs, the first floor offers more spacious rooms ideal for bedrooms or guest accommodation, together with another bathroom and access to the roof, which could be transformed into a beautiful terrace area.

This freehold property also includes full ownership of the roof and airspace. Contact us today for further details or to arrange a viewing.
